

PRESIDENT'S PIECE

A special welcome to our new Programme Coordinator, Jenna Wilson. Jenna brings many skills to the role and is settling in well.

The big news is that we will be shifting our classes in term 3 to the new South Dunedin Community Network venue at The Kokiri Centre in Macandrew Road. You will find a map on the course description when booking classes.

Our classes have been going really well and we are seeing lots of work being produced which is exciting. Our thanks, as always, go out to our wonderful tutoring team who do an amazing job. Well done DWEA tutoring team.

In term 3 we are offering three new classes for anyone wanting to weave a small Māori cloak, make some natural healing balms and teas or crochet a garment. Iti Kākahu will be run 24 - 26th July with tutor Robyn Ashton. This will be a one off so get your enrolment in soon. Barbara Fogarty will run a course titled Herbal Balms, Teas and Tonics on 2 September. This looks a lot of fun and I can personally recommend the balms having applied a little recently to treat a blemish. Lennette Cadzow will be expanding her crochet offerings with the chance to make a cardigan under her expert eye.

Natalie Cheetham will be taking a short break in term 3 and we look forward to welcoming her back in term 4.

Our AGM was held a couple of weeks ago and we sadly said farewell to Sue Cheer and Pam Nelson who have retired from the committee. A warm welcome to Louisa Merceanu who has joined our committee. We look forward to another successful year at DWEA.

I hope you are keeping warm and finding lots of activities from our programme to help you get through the winter.

Tutor Spotlight: Paul Donovan

We are thrilled to celebrate Paul Donovan, who has been selected as a finalist in the Tūhura Photography Exhibition, a fantastic achievement that recognises his creativity, technical skill and artistic vision.

If you have the chance, be sure to visit the exhibition at Tūhura, Otago Museum. 2 April - 19 July.

Inspired by what you see? Paul Donovan will be teaching Photography: Getting Started next term, offering students the chance to develop their own photographic skills under the guidance of an experienced and accomplished photographer. Places are expected to fill quickly, so keep an eye out on our website for enrolment details.

Introducing Herbal Balms, Teas & Tonics with Barbara Fogarty

Discover the art of traditional herbal remedies in this hands-on workshop designed for adults interested in natural wellness and herbal medicine. In this practical and engaging course, students will learn how to create a variety of herbal balms, teas, and tonics using nourishing and healing plants.

Along the way, students will explore the benefits of each herb, safe preparation methods, and simple techniques they can continue using at home. Each participant will leave with at least two handmade herbal samples to take home and enjoy.

Enrol now and discover the healing power of herbs in a fun and supportive environment.

Hello from our new Programme Coordinator

Hello everyone! I'm excited to introduce myself as the new Programme Coordinator at Dunedin WEA.

Jenna Wilson

I have a real passion for arts, crafts, learning and community, so joining WEA feels like a wonderful fit. Creativity has always been a big part of my life, and when I'm not at work or spending time with my family, you'll often find me knitting, crocheting, sewing, painting, drawing or singing with my choir. I love learning new things, meeting people, and sharing skills and ideas with others.

Although I am still new to the role, I'm already thoroughly enjoying being a part of the community. Everyone has been so welcoming and I've loved getting a glimpse of the enthusiasm, creativity and connection that make Dunedin WEA such a special place. I look forward to meeting many more of you in the months ahead!
